NEW Shared budgets now settle in 14 currencies

Trips that actually leave the group chat.

One app for the plan, the tickets, the money and the packing list.

Tripnest keeps your group's itinerary, boarding passes and hotel bookings in one place, splits every shared cost as you go and reminds everyone what to pack. It works offline once you land.

SCREENS

Four screens your group will open most.

We watched twelve groups plan real trips before drawing anything. These are the moments they kept coming back to: at the gate, on the day, at the dinner bill and when someone asks "where was that place?"

FEATURES

Built for the trip with four opinions and one card machine.

Every feature came from something that went wrong on a real group trip: a lost booking email, a forgotten adapter, a dinner nobody remembered paying for.

Shared day-by-day plan

Add a stop and the whole group sees it with travel time from the last one. Vote on maybes instead of arguing in the chat.

Forward it, it's filed

Forward booking emails to your trip address. Flights, stays and tickets land in Wallet with codes, times and the right day.

Split as you spend

Log a cost in two taps, split it evenly or by item, in any of 14 currencies. Tripnest works out the fewest payments to settle.

Packing that reads the forecast

Lists start from your destination's weather and plans. Shared items are assigned once so nobody brings three hairdryers.

One map of everyone's saves

Pins from the whole group on one map, filtered by day. Long-press to add a place to the itinerary.

Works with no signal

Passes, maps, the plan and the budget are stored on the phone. Changes sync when anyone's back online.

DESIGN NOTES

Bright enough for holiday, ordered enough for a 06:25 boarding time.

A warm paper background, one loud coral for actions, and a colour per kind of plan so a busy day can be read at a glance.

"Six of us in Lisbon and nobody had to chase anyone for money. The settle-up screen said three transfers and that was it."

RK Rhea K.

★★★★★

"I forward the booking emails and forget about them. At the airport the boarding pass was just there, even in flight mode."

DO Daniel O.

"The packing list caught the rain jacket I'd have left at home. I'd like more train operators in Wallet, but it's my go-to now."
